DESCRIPTION

"Don't Need No Snacks" is Crazy & the Brains' homage to a band they and we at BLR actually hate but still sorta secretly like. If you're a collector get the 4-pack with four different colored tapes and 4 different covers. If you're broke, send us $6 and we'll send you whichever cover has the band member we think you'll find most dreamy. Then you can put it on a shelf over your bed and stare wistfully at it while you fall asleep. One thing is for sure though you'll be blasting the fun sounds of this EP at your next party and all your friends will think yer pretty kewl. No need to thank us, just save us some beers.

TRACK LISTING

Side B Lindsay Lohan, Outer Space, Saturday Night Live
